Prominent Men Cross The Divide

Man's Back Almost Broken In Serious Auto Wreck Sunday

High School Student Painfully Hurt In Fall From School Bus

AUTO TURNS END FOR END THREE TIMES

Speed Blamed for Unfortunate Accident Which Injured Calistoga Man and His Family.

Another serious automobile accident occurred last Sunday afternoon on the Napa-Schellville grade when a Studebaker touring car, driven by Manuel Adams, a Calistoga barber, left the road, overturned and seriously injured George Anthony and family, who were guests of Adams on the trip. Anthony was so badly hurt when picked up that it was first feared that his back had been broken. He was rushed to the Burnside Sanitarium where X-ray pictures were taken of his injury. His wife and child were painfully cut and were given treatment by Dr. McGrath.

The driver of the wrecked car escaped injury. He is said to have been coming down the hill at a high rate of speed and in turning out to avoid other cars his machine skidded in the loose gravel. The car turned over three times, end over end, wrecked a fence and laded right side up on the other side of a gully.

Mrs. Anthony and family are said to have once before accompanied Adams on a ride, and warned her husband that he was a fast driver and that she would never go again. Sunday, however, she overcame her fear and came to Sonoma Valley, with the resultant accident.

A Napa garage sent a wrecking outfit over to pull the car out and tow it to that city. Howard Cliff, formerly of El Verano, had charge of the wreck and handled it in a very capable manner.

Anthony is in a plaster cast at the hospital, but it is now thought that the injury to his back is not as serious as believed.

TALENTED VIOLINIST IS TO BE MARRIED

The engagement has been announced of Miss Bernice Brooks, of San Jose, and Lyle F. Campbell, musical director of the Sonoma Valley Union High School.

Miss Brooks is a talented musician and a popular girl of the Garden City. She met Mr. Campbell while he was attending the University of the Pacific in San Jose.

Mr. Campbell is a gifted violinist and his splendid training of the local orchestra since he became a member of the high school faculty is widely appreciated. He has also contributed largely to the musical side of the community and is always most generous to respond to requests to play for our clubs and lodges.

The talented young couple will be wished the greatest happiness by a large circle of friends, both here and in Santa Clara county.

Sonoma City's Marshal Needs Police Uniform

Sonoma City has a handsome new city marshal. He is a chief of police to be proud of, but he needs a uniform. City speeders and those who look around for the majesty of the law in Sonoma can't find it. You can't flash a star under a vest or wear it on your coat sleeve. Sonoma's chief of police is now a plain clothes man, and the modern law breaker speeds right by him. Jim will have to have a high power car to follow some of them, or a uniform. Let's buy the uniform. Khaki or blue, which will you have, Jim?

THOMSON-SHIFLER NUPTIALS SATURDAY

The wedding of Miss Celia Thomson and William Harrison Shiffler was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Thomson, at 4:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. It was a simple, but impressive ceremony, performed by Rev. J. F. Byrne in the living room, and was witnessed by the immediate family of the bride and a few intimate friends.

In a setting of feathery cosmos and pink dahlias, and under the soft gleam of shaded lights, the young couple plighted their troth. Miss Thomson came into the room on the arm of her father. She had for her bridesmaid Miss Beth Lane, while Raul Emparan, uncle of the bride, was best man. A modish gown of golden brown material with hat in harmonious tones was worn by the bride, and the bridesmaid looked charming in a dress of violet shade with hat to match.

Following the words which united the happy young couple, there was general felicitations and sincere thanks giving that Dr. Thomson had been able to be present and participate in the happy occasion. Mrs. Emparan impressively sang "Oh, Promise Me."

All then repaired to the dining room which had been adorned with flowers in real California colors and where two beautifully decorated cakes further ornamented the table. The wedding cake and the bride's cake were cut and other dainties partaken of as toasts and good wishes were showered upon bride and groom. The bride's table was very prettily arranged. Mr. and Mrs. Shiffler left later for their honeymoon in Southern California. They were the recipients of many handsome wedding gifts. Two cedar chests were richly laden with presents, one of the chests being the gift of the groom's mother.

EASTERN VISITOR LIKES OUR HISTORY

Mark Troxel, of Madison, Wisconsin, where he publishes the American Thresherman, was a visitor to Sonoma Thursday. Mr. Troxel is interested in history and came to California to study our romantic background. He viewed the Sonoma Mission and other landmarks, and expressed admiration of all he saw while here.

John Batto and William Durant Die; Funerals To Be Held Here Tomorrow

In the passing of John Batto and Wm. Durant, who passed away October 1st, Sonoma Valley has lost two prominent citizens, long identified with the life of this community.

John Batto, prominent resident of Vineburg, senior member of the firm of Batto and Sons, died at the family home Thursday. He was ill only a little over 24 hours and was conscious almost to the last. Although he had attained the venerable age of 82 years, he had been a very active man, his mind keen and alert for business up to the time of his fatal illness. An acute heart attack caused his passing.

John Batto was born in the vicinity of Genoa, Italy and came to this country 51 years ago, bringing with him his wife and little son Fred, then six years old. They settled in Contra Costa county, the senior Batto working in the coal mines. Through industry and thrift, he accumulated a comfortable amount and came to Sonoma Valley where he purchased a portion of the Bates ranch which has ever since been his home. He farmed the land for about eight years and then started in the dried fruit business, and established a small merchandise store which has since grown into the big firm, incorporated about 30 years ago under the name of John Batto and Sons. His sons became identified with the father in the business enterprise and through the late Mr. Batto's wise counsel, enterprising foresight and honorable example, the firm attained great success. Throughout the years the senior member of the firm saw the business grow and prosper until Batto & Sons became the leading merchants of this section. A fine business block, warehouses and spur tracks indicate the success which was achieved and the family also became identified with the banking business in Sonoma Valley and other enterprises in Modesto county.

The late Mr. Batto continued to reside at Vineburg where most of his children were born and raised, went to school and later married. His second son, Arthur Batto, a bright young business man, passed away a few years ago, but surviving the pioneer father are his son, Fred Batto, prominent and wealthy member of the firm, and his daughter, Mrs. Kate Figone, of San Francisco, and Miss Mary Batto. Ten grand-children are also left to mourn his passing. They are Evelyn and Francis Batto, children of the late Arthur Batto; Fred Batto, Jr., Mrs. Louise Groskopf, Emily Batto, Herbert Batto, Ernest, Norma, Rosalie and Angelo Figone.

There will be a solemn high requiem mass for the repose of his soul this morning at St. Francis church at 8:30 o'clock, with funeral services tomorrow (Sunday) at 1:30 o'clock from his late residence in Vineburg, thence to the Catholic church. Interment will be in the family vault at Mountain Cemetery.

William Durant, retired vineyardist and property owner of Sonoma Valley, who removed to Sparks, Nevada, after the death of his wife just a year ago, died in that city Thursday, aged 74 years. He passed away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Cheney, who gave him every loving care, for father and daughter were most devoted. Mr. Durant had been ailing for some time, but under the care of Reno physicians, seemed to improve. However, his condition suddenly became critical again this week and he passed away in the early hours of Thursday morning.

William Durant was born in Canada, and as a young man followed farming. He was an expert viticulturist and came to Sonoma Valley as the superintendent of the Halstead place, now owned by George Fetter. The acreage was then in vines and yielded magnificent harvests of grapes each year.

Death Angel Calls Mrs. Cliff Monday

One of the saddest deaths in years brought happiness and joy wherever she went, radiating the beautiful personality in sorrow was that of Mrs. E. H. Cliff, beautiful young wife and mother, who was called to the Great Beyond early last Monday morning. Deceased had been ill but a few days and the seriousness of her fatal illness was not realized until dread peritonitis set in and caused her death. A devoted husband, six children and loving mother are left to mourn her presence in the home over which she presided with all the finer attributes of motherly devotion and noble womanhood. Known and esteemed by a large circle of friends in the church and in the school, where she had been such a factor for good, her death will be a keen blow to the community, as well as to the home circle where she was so beloved.

Mrs. Cliff was a little over 38 years of age and was a beautiful woman. Endowed with a natural charm of manner and sunny disposition, she brought happiness and joy wherever she went, radiating the beautiful personality in sorrow which made her the ideal wife, mother and friend. She reared and carefully educated her children, both in school and church, and the late seven year old girl, youngest of those left to mourn her, will indeed miss her loving care and counsel. The funeral conducted by her pastor, Rev. S. E. Crowe, of the First M. E. church, assisted by Dr. Cookman and Dr. MacArthur, and largely attended, was a tender and fitting tribute to a lovely, ideal life as wife, mother and devout Christian. In consideration of the local choir, the Napa M. E. church furnished a quartette, with Miss Marjorie Crandall at the organ. Their music and kindly spirit was a liberal benediction. Mrs. Myrtle Weise sang, by request, "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere."

The words of the minister were of life and inspiration; that to the manner and sunny disposition, she

Sheriff Ryan Right There On This Case

Sheriff Ryan had a job much to his liking Saturday when an attachment arrived for a race horse, Blaze Away, quartered at the Rossiter ranch near Santa Rosa. Ryan accompanied the man who levied the attachment out to the ranch, showed his papers, went out and caught the thoroughbred and took it to the county jail. The horse was the property of a man in Florida. Bystanders remarked how clever Ryan was with horses. They did not know that the new sheriff is an old horseman and has often been a winner at the San Francisco Driving Club.

NATIVE DAUGHTERS OBSERVE ANNIVERSARY

Sonoma Parlor No. 209, N. D. G. W., celebrated its tenth anniversary Monday night in royal fashion. The Jubilee year colors were used in decorations and the banquet table set in the form of a cross presented a beautiful appearance with red and yellow candles agleam and bouquets of flowers in the same tones.

The charter members and past presidents sat at one table, surrounded by the new members, and there were speeches, toasts and general merry-making.

A special guest of honor was Mrs. Belle Green, who organized Sonoma Parlor and was its first district deputy grand president. Mrs. Green was presented with hand painted china by President Florence Robin. Mrs. Mae Norrbom, for 10 years the efficient and loyal secretary of the Parlor, was presented with an N. D. G. W. pin. District Deputy Grand President Florence Adler made the presentation.

On the table was the Parlor's huge birthday cake in addition to many other delicacies, and the cake was cut by Mrs. Mae Chase, one of the old members. The committee had provided bon bon caps which were donned by the Native Daughters at the conclusion of the feast and added to the carnival spirit of the birthday party.

The committee of arrangement was composed of Mrs. Rose Bartoli, Mrs. Albina Bianchini, Miss Emma Trautvetter, Mrs. Louise Groskopf and Mrs. Helen Anselmi.

FLORENCE CARTER LOCAL FRESHMAN RECEIVES INJURY

Auto Carrying Students Strikes Rut Throwing Boyes Springs Girl to the Road.

Last Wednesday morning as William Rambo, driver of one of the high school busses was bringing the students from the Springs section to their classes, the auto bus struck a deep rut on the unpaved section of Broadway, throwing Miss Florence Carter, a Freshman, to the street. The young lady was picked up in a semi-conscious condition and concussion of the brain was at first feared. She suffered a deep gash in the head and was hurried to the office of Dr. A. K. McGrath for observation and treatment.

The victim of the accident was riding on the end seat of the school bus and not anticipating the lurch which the auto gave as it hit the declivity in the street, was pitched from the vehicle. She is said to have clutched at the auto and held on for a fraction of a second, thus breaking her fall. Fortunately the accident happened on the graveled surface instead of on the pavement, otherwise the young lady might have been fatally injured.

Mr. Rambo was proceeding up Broadway when a double team and wagon in front of him and several autos coming in the opposite direction gave him no opportunity to pass and he swung off the highway to the graveled road at the side. The surface looked in good condition and he went along without mishap until he reached a point near the old Weems property. There, he declares, the street, once torn up for sewer connection, had not been properly repaired, and a deep rut camouflaged by gravel and leaves caused the accident. His front wheels dropped into the rut, causing the rear part of the bus to rise, thus throwing the student out.

Miss Carter was reported as better Thursday, her delirious condition having cleared up, with prospects that she would soon recover. The Carters are new comers to Sonoma Valley, the young lady registering from the Flowery District.

HALLOWE'EN DANCES TO ENLIVEN SEASON

The winter dancing season will be a joyous one from all indications. As usual the Native Daughters will observe Halloween with their annual anniversary ball at Union Hall. They plan a fine party with the customary Halloween decorations, many novel features and good music.

At Glen Ellen the Women's Improvement Club will give a Halloween masquerade with prizes for the best and most comical costumes. Perkins' orchestra, good eats and a good time is promised all who attend.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Smith fell out of a tree and broke his arm recently. He is under the doctor's care.

W. F. Clewe, well known business man of Sonoma, has been appointed local chairman for the Navy Day celebration to be observed throughout the state on October 27th, the natal day of Theodore Roosevelt. Announcement of this appointment and acceptance was made this week by Harvey Toy, state chairman for Navy Day.

An elaborate program of activity is being arranged and the Navy League of the United States which is sponsoring the celebration, is planning to eclipse all previous affairs. Chambers of Commerce throughout the state have pledged their co-operation and will act with the executive committee in arranging the various programs.

Leslie B. Newman, Western secretary, is in charge of the program arrangements and Captain Frank Ainsworth is chairman of the district embracing the bay region.

WILL TAKE FINE TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. H. Greene of Boyes Springs are leaving on an extensive motor trip to the North and Canada. They are taking a well deserved vacation. Mr. Greene, the accommodating manager of the Boyes Springs Lumber Company, needs a rest from business and his wife, the popular and capable proprietor of the Woodleaf Store at Boyes Springs, has also earned this vacation, which promises to be a delightful one. They will be absent an indefinite length of time.

GOLDEN GATE FERRY'S SPECIAL WINTER BOATS

In accordance with requests made by many residents of the North Bay district and friends of the Golden Gate Ferry Company, who desire to attend the theatre and opera performances and other social functions in San Francisco during the winter months, arrangements have been made by the Golden Gate Ferry Company in planning its winter schedule, to have boats leaving San Francisco at 12:30 and 1:30 a. m. throughout the winter.

The first boat daily will leave Sausalito at 5 a. m., and one-half hour service will be continued practically throughout the day and evening. The last regular boat will leave Sausalito at 1:00 a. m. and from San Francisco at 1:30 a. m. Saturdays and Sundays there will be a special boat from Sausalito at 2 a. m., and from San Francisco at 2:30 a. m.

Following the custom of the Golden Gate Ferry Company to give the best possible service to the public, special boats will be run whenever traffic requirements make necessary.

It is expected that the special theatre boat will become quite generally used, thus bringing San Francisco and the North Bay still closer together.

PROGRESS ON BRIDGE AT CARQUINEZ STRAITS

Work on the Vallejo bridge across Carquinez Straits has progressed to the point where officials of the steel work can commence soon, it was announced last week.

Investigation of the recent collapse of the cement work of Pier No. 4 shows that teredoed caused the undermining of one of the largest underwater foundations in modern bridge construction. The accident report shows that the cement was being poured into the forms, made of planks 14 inches in thickness. Teredoed ate through nine inches of these planks, weakening them so they collapsed.

The steel contract calls for material costing $2,876,000. It will require 300 cars to haul the steel from the various United States steel mills for the upper works of the big span. The steel will be assembled at New York City and shipped by steamer through the Panama Canal to Alameda. Here six acres have been leased which is already being turned into an assembling plant. The various parts of the superstructure will be carefully laid out at Alameda, fitted to their adjoining portions, numbered, and then transported on barges made for the purpose up the straits to Crockett.

U. C. EXTENSION CLASS IN SANTA ROSA, PETALUMA

A class in "Immigrant Backgrounds" will be organized in Santa Rosa and Petaluma if a sufficient number of people are interested. It will be held in Santa Rosa on October 6th, at 7:30 p. m., and in Petaluma on October 8th at the same time. Another course of particular interest to club women, P. T. A. members and mothers will be held in the afternoon. This class will commence as soon as 20 have signed their intention of enrolling.

These courses will be under the University of California Extension Service. The evening course will carry two units of university credit which may be applied as two of the six units required for the special Americanization credentials. The afternoon class will carry one unit of university credit. They will meet once a week for about a two hour period, in the high school building.

Dr. Carol Aronovici will be the instructor for the classes. He is particularly well fitted for this work as he has worked with the different foreign groups. He was born in Roumania and has traveled extensively.

The afternoon class is "Aspects of Social Progress." It is a course of lectures dealing with the achievements of modern civilization from the point of view of democratic institutions. The modern writers on the subject of progress and civilization will be considered. An opportunity for the discussion of present day events will be given to members of the class. This course will be of interest to those who wish to keep up with the important events of social development in America.

SONOMA MAN ASKS $589 AUTO DAMAGES

An automobile crash here August 15 is made the basis of a suit for $589 damages, filed in the superior court at Santa Rosa by William Weirich against A. C. Franzen. According to the complaint, Franzen failed to heed motorists' signals given by Weirich, with the result that Franzen's car crashed into the machine driven by Weirich. He asks $500 for injuries to himself and $89 for the repair of his automobile and the time he lost when he could not use his machine.

A. R. Grinstead of Sonoma, and C. W. Anderson of Santa Rosa are his attorneys.

BREWERS' HEAD OPPOSES PEACE WITH DRY BODY

Christian W. Freisenspan, the president of the Christian Freisenspan Brewery, of Newark, New Jersey, has offered his resignation as president of the United States Brewers' Association because of his opposition to the reported attempt to reach a compromise with the Anti-Saloon League on modification of the Volstead Act.

Newark brewers said they approved of his stand, that the people themselves should determine whether they wanted a modification, and that it was not a fit subject for compromise. They also asserted that the sentiment was swinging toward a relaxation of restrictions, and that modification would shortly be brought about by popular demand without the assistance of the Anti-Saloon League.

CONGREGATIONAL PLAY AND BAZAAR NOVEMBER 13

The Congregational Ladies' Aid Society is making preparations for its annual bazaar and play, to be given at Union Hall on November 13th. The drama, "Mr. Bob," to be presented, is a clever one and will feature several talented Sonoma comedians in leading roles.

Mrs. Carrie Burlingame is capable coach for the play, and rehearsals already have started.

NEW TREATMENT FOR GRAPES LOADED IN CARS

By H. A. WEINLAND
Agricultural Extension Service,
Sonoma County

The new method of treating grapes with sulphur fumes in loaded cars to check mold, which was worked out experimentally by the University of California and tried out in Napa county last year, is creating considerable interest among growers and shippers this season. The demonstrations of the method which were put on by the Farm Advisor, pointed out that in 20 minutes' time grapes in cars could be effectively treated with sulphur to a sufficient degree to kill the mold in the bunches and make it possible for them to arrive in the East in much better condition than would otherwise be the case.

Several cars were treated, the reports of which on their arrival in the East will be followed with considerable interest and already shippers and private individuals are preparing to treat numbers of cars before this present season is over.

IT CERTAINLY PAYS

Advertising pays, and advertising in the Sonoma Index-Tribune certainly does. This week a lady who advertised her furnished house in this newspaper had an inquiry all the way from Los Angeles. A tourist read the Index-Tribune in the library there, saw the ad and at once communicated with the Sonoma advertiser, Mrs. Kate Griffiths.

Another pleased advertiser is one who told of a massive antique bed room set in our classified column. His ad cost him 25 cents and he sold the furniture for $75 a day after the ad appeared in the Index-Tribune.

My Dear Sir:

Relative to my announced intention to enter the race for the Republican nomination for the United States Senate next August, and in order to clear up and misunderstanding which may have resulted from newspaper reports published to the contrary during my recent absence from the state, I take this opportunity to say that all such reports are unauthorized, and that I have no intention whatsoever of withdrawing. I am in the race to stay, and when the proper time comes I shall enter upon an active campaign.

Feeling that you will appreciate an unequivocal statement from me, and with kind regards, I am,

Very sincerely yours,
WALTER F. LINEBERGER.

MARIN BONDS CARRY BY VOTE OF 8 TO 1

Marin county voters, by an estimated majority of approximately 8 to 1, last Saturday declared in favor of bonding the county for $1,250,000 for improvement and construction of highways. According to the provisions of the bond issue, the authorization of the bonds by the voters means the construction of 96 miles of new highway, which will include practically all the main arteries of traffic in the county.

THE SEWER FARM NUISANCE

Sonoma City and everyone who lives in it have something very serious to consider in the matter of sewer conditions here.

Some years ago the community had wretched and unsanitary sewage in the town until the people complained, the health authorities foresaw an epidemic and conditions were corrected. A sewer system was put in and all property owners had to connect up with it. The waste was run out of town to a sewer farm some three miles south of here. It was thought to be a satisfactory way of disposing of the sewage, but the chemical treatment plant has failed to function properly, the country has become more thickly populated, and as a result the nuisance has simply been planted at someone else's door. Property owners in the sewer farm neighborhood have been complaining for some time past that the farm was a nuisance. They called attention to the stench, to the fact that the farm and liquids therefrom was a breeding place for mosquitoes and that the drainage water running into the creek polluted the water, making it unfit for cattle in the vicinity.

Just recently a property owner has lost several milk cows which died, so he claims, from drinking this water. Other cows have become sick therefrom and as a result the land owner, who had been in the dairy business, has been restrained by the state dairy inspector from selling his product. He is face to face with a serious loss, cannot sell his ranch because of its location and is strictly out of luck.

If Sonoma City is responsible for this injustice, steps should be taken at once to make restitution and prevent any further recurrence of trouble by abating the sewer farm nuisance. If we must sewer to tide water via a bond election, let us go to it. We all deplore more taxes, but neither City Trustees nor anyone else in Sonoma wants to dump sewage on the people outside and close their eyes to the results. Such an attitude is neither business-like nor brotherly. What injures one part of Sonoma Valley injures the entire community, and if a single farmer suffers as a result of the present arrangement, corrective measures should be applied. Sonoma City should not wait to defend damage suits in the courts, but should proceed at once to clean up, as a matter of justice and common decency.

THIS CIVIL WAR OF LIQUOR

From time to time, the lawlessness in America under the dry regime has been characterized as a civil war. It begins to look that way in this vicinity, where just a week or so ago the Sheriff of Napa County arrested his own brother as a liquor violator.

Wets against dries, dries against wets, brother against brother—surely, that savors of internal strife. Napa County has had wholesale arrests of farmers and business people. Thirteen thousand dollars in fines were collected just recently. Of course, it is as wet as ever, despite the civil war which is waging and the plotting is deeper and more widespread. Sheriff Harris is hailed as a champion of law and order and is commended for including his own brother in the net. All very good at present, but how long will the Sheriff be champion? The test will come at the election. Then it will be determined whether or not public sentiment approves of his course. If the people approve and back him, he will be returned to office and in that event there is hope that the civil war will eventually peter out in Napa County. If Sheriff

Harris is defeated, the dutiful officer will peter out, instead, and free of his oath of office to enforce this sumptuary law, will take up the old doctrine of the brotherhood of man which he had to renounce in order to make good on the job.

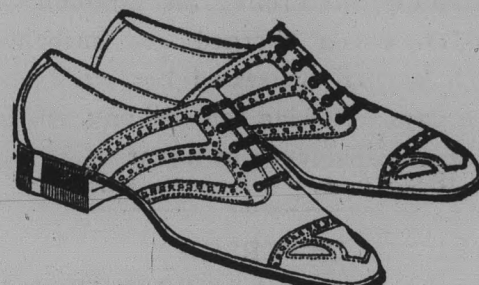

Public opinion must ultimately decide this liquor question in every little county and hamlet of our country. The complexion of the country will be determined, not by laws, but by sentiment. It is the only law of the land which will abide.

The under cover agent who located a bottle of booze under the covers of a woman's bed in Santa Rosa is supposed to have got "the goods" on her. A night cap, we presume.

Bat more fruit is a healthy slogan. We in California should set the example for all the rest of the country. The vitamins and natural sugar and salts contained in fresh fruit are Nature's own prescriptions. Eat more fruit yourself, and when you give a gift let it be fruit. If we say it with flowers in sad moments, why not say it with fruit in glad ones? Eat more fruit. Eat what you can and own what you can't.

DISCOVERY OF SONOMA CO. TO BE CELEBRATED

Mrs. W. L. Murphy,
Sonoma, Calif.

My Dear Mrs. Murphy:

As a member of the reference and advisory board of the new history of Sonoma county, you are cordially invited to attend the celebration of the 15th anniversary of Sonoma county's discovery. Discovery day being October 3rd, and falling on Saturday this year, the celebration is to be held on Sunday, October 4th. The caravan will start from the Sebastopol Chamber of Commerce building at about 9:45 a. m., for Bodega, and go later to Bodega Bay. Six markers, in all, will be placed at historic spots. After a basket picnic, the Slivers will give a program. Yourself and party, and friends, will be made welcome.

Very sincerely yours,
HONORIA TUOMEY.

ZOTIQUE LE MAY LEAVES AN ESTATE WORTH $4050

An estate valued at $4050, consisting of personal property and real estate in Sonoma and Richmond was left by the late Zotique LeMay of this city, who passed away last week, according to a petition for probate of the will, filed in the superior court at Santa Rosa last week by Onesiphore LeMay. Mr. LeMay left a will dated February 10, 1924, in which the petitioner, a resident of Sacramento; Leclde LeMay of Tiburon and Florence Hopkins of Fruitvale are named beneficiaries.

Attorney A. R. Grinstead represents the petitioner.

NATIONAL FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

A tremendous disaster occurred today. Property valued at $1,466,744.44 was wiped out and 41 persons lost their lives by fire. The destruction proceeded continuously through 24 hours; every hour $61,115.00, every minute $1,018.59, every second $16.97, was wiped out.

This is another way of stating what the National Board of Fire Underwriters, the highest authority on the subject tells us; namely, that our national annual fire loss is $535,372,782.

What this means may be comprehended from a few comparisons. Our annual production of gold and silver is $103,119,741, less than one-fifth of our fire loss. As a people, we produced a wealth of $1,900,287,000 in our 1922 corn crop; but we wasted more than 28 per cent of that amount by fire. Our 1922 cotton crop amounted to $1,192,461,000; our fire loss was 44 per cent of that sum. In 1923 we paid our government internal revenues, excluding income and inheritance taxes, totaling $309,015,050. We wasted by fire that same year more than half again as much as Uncle Sam collected in these revenues.

What is the cause of this loss? Fire department chiefs, insurance and other experts tell us that 75 per cent of our fires are partly or wholly preventable, the results of one form or another of carelessness. Carelessness is certainly to be denounced. But it is a delusion to think that the time ever will come when it will not be necessary to forestall the results of carelessness.

Just what does this mean? In this state, according to the underwriters, "matches, smoking," is responsible for the greatest fire losses. Now if, in every instance of carelessness on the part of users of matches, the place where the fire occurred had been built of incombustible materials, the consequences of the carelessness would have been less disastrous.

For the fundamental cause of combustion is combustibility. And the way to forestall the results of carelessness is to build fire safe. We must either admit that "we build to burn," or accept the challenge of the new slogan, "build fire safe."

DON'T FOOL WITH A COLD—take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, steaming hot, at bedtime. Your cold will be gone in the morning. L. S. Simmons.—adv.

MANY PRIZES FOR BARN DANCE TONIGHT

The fire department dance at Glen Ellen tonight will be largely attended, as ticket sales indicate. There has been wide interest in the commendable effort of Glen Ellen to acquire the fire engine, and the dance tonight should help materially to reduce the debt of the equipment.

Many donations have been received for the dance and some valuable articles will be disposed of for the good cause. The committee wishes to thank the following for contributions: Charles LaTorres of the Sonoma Valley Shoe Store, Tony Cereghino, A. W. Adler, Cash and Carry Market, L. S. Simmons, G. H. Hotz, George Leiser, L. F. Lambert, S. A. Robinson, Marcy & Peterson, F. Duhring and the Sonoma Index-Tribune; also the Glen Ellen donors, Mrs. G. O'Donnell, B. Bryant, Jack London ranch, J. H. Weise and J. Pancrazi. The Santa Rosa contributors were Katerlin Brothers and Hall Candy Store.

SONOMA YOUNG LADY GETS HER DIVORCE

Verna Quartaroli Green, pretty Sonoma girl, who recently recovered from a serious operation, was awarded an interlocutory decree by Judge Campbell after hearing of her charges of extreme cruelty against Harold Green, U. C. student. The Quartaroli-Green marriage created considerable interest several months ago, the young couple awakening Deputy County Clerk Fred C. Thompson at 2 o'clock on a Sunday morning to secure their license, then later seeking to cancel it and destroy the record. After a week's hesitation, in which they announced their plans of securing a new license and being married in Berkeley the ceremony was performed in Sonoma, with the original marriage certificate, Rev. S. E. Crowe of the M. E. church performing the ceremony. Mrs. Green charged her husband with having mistreated her within a few days following the wedding, while under the influence of liquor.

WALTER PETERSON TAKES A BRIDE

Walter Peterson, youngest brother of Ed Peterson, the plumbing contractor, and of Miss Nellie Peterson, chief operator at the local telephone office, was married Saturday in Berkeley to Miss Margaret Chapman. The ceremony was performed at the home of mutual friends of the young couple.

Mr. Peterson has been an employee of the Standard Oil Company at Richmond for the past six years and is highly regarded there. His bride is a trained nurse who has been employed at the Alta Bates sanitarium in the college town. The young lady will be remembered her by a number of friends, for she attended school when a girl at El Verano.

Mr. and Mrs. Peterson came to Sonoma Sunday to visit their relatives and were heartily congratulated.

TRAFFIC COP WANTED HERE

Plans for the addition of another traffic officer to the Sonoma county traffic squad, for the purpose of patrolling the Sonoma Valley highways and roads are to be started soon.

Complaints that the highways in this section of the county between Agua Caliente, Sonoma and Schellville are being used as race courses by motorists and that traffic officers are unable to patrol those highways regularly due to their duties in other sections of the county, are understood to be the cause of the proposal to add another traffic man to the squad, who will make his headquarters in Sonoma.

Residents of Sonoma Valley have been putting the matter up to Supervisor F. A. Lowell of this district, and it is reported that the matter will be taken up with the traffic squad and put up to the Board of Supervisors for approval.

Dr. Boolsen operated recently on A. Baccala, who is now convalescing nicely. A growth on Mr. Baccala's neck was removed.

ASKS FOR DIVORCE ON CRUELTY GROUNDS

Mrs. Eva Davidson, beautiful daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wedekind, and a prominent young society matron of San Francisco, has instituted divorce proceedings against her husband, a prominent realty man, the complaint being cruelty.

She alleges that he has transferred valuable securities without her consent or knowledge, that he has been seen at cafes with other women, and has neglected her. She asks for the custody of their two little daughters, $300 alimony and possession of the family home in San Francisco.

Mrs. Davidson is a gifted singer and her wedding in San Francisco some years ago was a brilliant event. She has often visited here with her parents at their pretty country home south of town.

FANCY PRICES FOR SONOMA APPLES

Picetti Brothers, local orchardists, recently shipped some late apples to the San Francisco market and received $4 per box. The apples were of the variety known as the "Delicious" and there were just 60 apples in each box. The Winter Banana variety brought $3.75 per box.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express my thanks and appreciation for the prompt and effective aid rendered by the Sonoma and Boyes Springs fire departments when fire swept my ranch at Schellville on Tuesday. The fire departments are certainly to be commended.

FIRST OF IMPROVED FORDS ARRIVE HERE

First of the improved Ford cars to arrive in Sonoma went on display last week in the show rooms of E. Coates, local authorized Ford dealer, and immediately attracted the attention of everyone.

To say that people who saw the new car were surprised at the appearance would be putting it mildly. The improved types exceed all expectations in improved appearance and more comfort and convenience. For the most part the bodies have been completely redesigned and conform in every respect to the most advanced features of body construction.

Not only have bodies been built stiffer, but they are set on a lower chassis frame and with larger, low hanging fenders impart to the complete car a striking suggestion of riding and driving ease.

While Mr. Coates has been able so far only to show the touring car, other types will be shown as quickly as they can be obtained from the Ford Motor Company branch at San Francisco, where because of their popularity, demands on production are somewhat delaying immediate delivery of all types of cars.

TO THE GOOD PEOPLE OF SONOMA VALLEY

As it would be almost physically impossible to thank each one individually, we take this means to thank you from the bottom of our hearts for the love and many kindnesses shown us during our bereavement. We have learned that the world is full of love and kindness and all folks anxious to be of help in time of trouble. Truly, "one touch of nature makes the world akin."

season. Later Mr. Durant acquired the Clark place at Agua Caliente, where he resided for some time.

He was a widower with the one daughter, Ella, whose mother had died in San Francisco before they came here. Mr. Durant carefully raised and educated his only child, who subsequently married Charles Cheney, of a pioneer Sonoma family. Mr. Durant took as his second wife Miss Ellen VanEvery, of Sonoma, with whom he lived most happily for almost 30 years.

Mr. Durant prospered in Sonoma Valley and through good investments and business deals, was able to retire finally, although always active and refusing to sit idly by. He acquired a home in town which was a model of neatness and experimented with strawberries, whose yield proved most profitable. At the death of his wife deceased disposed of his property here and went to Nevada to make his home at Sparks, where he had some investments, and where he could be with his daughter, Mrs. Cheney. Father and daughter recently made a trip to the Middle West, where many of Mr. Durant's relatives were visited. He greatly enjoyed this experience as he had long contemplated the trip.

In the latter part of July Mr. Durant arrived home and shortly thereafter was taken quite sick. His death was not unexpected. Besides the surviving daughter, two grandsons, Norman and William Cheney, survive the esteemed pioneer.

The remains will arrive from Nevada on tonight's S. P. train and will be taken to the J. M. Cheney residence on Spain street. Funeral services will be tomorrow at 2:30 p. m.

DUCK SEASON OPENS

The duck season opened on the 1st with many sportsmen in quest of the toothsome birds. At the Embarcadero gun club Carl Bundschu, J. H. Williams, Walter Bundschu, Frank Barris and others got good shooting. Capt. T. V. Butts of Santa Rosa found ducks plentiful in the vicinity of Colusa.

COURSES IN VITICULTURE TO BE GIVEN IN COUNTY

If sufficient interest is shown by grape growers and other fruit growers of Sonoma, Napa, Marin, Mendocino and Lake counties, a short extension course in viticulture will be given in Santa Rosa by the University of California during the latter part of November or first of December, it is announced by the local extension office.

The program will cover a full weeks instruction by lectures and field demonstration on various problems of pomology and viticulture.

For the purpose of meeting the popular demand for short course instruction in agriculture in the central and southern parts of the state, the college of agriculture during the past fiscal year offered a number of special courses designed to meet the needs of those portions of the state.

The courses given were essentially of the short course type, but being given at points where the college does not possess teaching facilities, they were held in cooperation with the agricultural extension service, for which reasons they have been designated as extension schools. In the main the response to these activities was quite satisfactory, in some cases much better than was anticipated and sufficient to warrant the repetition of the courses. W. A. Weinland, Sonoma county extension representative, stated, and added that it was now the intention of the extension service to conduct similar courses in this section of the state.

Sonoma county was chosen by the extension officials as the ideal place to hold such a course owing to its central location for the count of the North of Bay district, which includes Napa, Marin, Mendocino and Lake.

If the extension course is conducted in Santa Rosa, the latest information that has been discovered with relation to pest and disease control, fertilization, and dehydration will be the general complex of the course. The instructors will include: W. L. Howard, professor of pomology; H. E. Jacobs, division viticulturalist, and A. H. Christie of the state division of fruit products.

The extension office is desirous of getting a check-up of the sentiment of the growers in this district regarding this course and requests that anyone sufficiently interested either call or communicate with the Sonoma county extension office, stating, if, in your opinion, such a course would be profitable to the agriculturalists of this district.

It is requested that your opinions on this subject be given the extension office at your earliest convenience in order that arrangements for the course may be completed.

vant of God there is no death; that earth was transitory, but heaven eternal. It was a remarkable address and one full of love and tender sympathy.

Pearl Bridges Cliff was born in Ohio 38 years, three months and two days from the date of her death. Coming to California, she was married at 18 years of age to Ernest H. Cliff. Of this happy union the following children were born: Howard, Irma, Walter, Stanley, Thelma and Lelia. In Mt. Cemetery Wednesday all that was mortal of this noble woman was laid to rest. A wealth of autumn floral beauty covered the grave, testifying silently but eloquently the love and esteem in which she was held throughout the Valley of the Moon.

The eulogy by Rev. Mr. Crowe was concluded with the following:

There Is No Death

I will not say that she is dead
But simply strolled afar,
And entered God's great paradise

Midst songs of birds and fragrant flowers
She sought her glorious Lord,
To thrill with life forevermore
As listening to His word:

"Tis paradise to see and know,
Thy Saviour and His grace,
To hear Him bid His loved ones come,
And greet them face to face.

I, as your guest, you welcomed oft,
And now this mansion, see,
For thee, 'tis thine, with love divine,
Through all eternity.

"O daughter fair, thrice welcome here,
My hand, my welcome true,
Take thou possession of this home
'Twas built, indeed, for you.
Life's earthly days will soon be past,
Thy loved ones, then, I'll call,
And you will open wide the doors
To bid them welcome all.

"There's neither death nor crying here,
Nor fear of grave, nor tears,
For God has wiped them all away
And banished all your fears.
There is no night nor set of sun,
Nor dread or thought of gloom
For these were conquered by your Christ
And banished every tomb."

GAME LAW DEPUTIES MUST NOT MEDDLE

Over-zealousness to enforce the prohibition, motor vehicle and other laws outside their particular field is likely to prove disastrous for deputies of the State Fish and Game Commission in the future.

An executive order has gone out from the office of the commission at Sacramento that the enforcement of the fish and game laws of California offers plenty of work for a limited number of deputies. Furthermore, deputies of the commission have been warned they are hired for a special purpose and not as enforcement officers for all the laws on the statute books.

While the order is general in tone, it is known to have been prompted by the activities lately of a few deputies who apparently felt they had been engaged by the fish and game commission for general police work. In plain words, the order is intended as a warning against meddling.

Another significant feature of the order is that it was issued soon after a complaint had been lodged with the commission relative to the conduct of T. E. Roach, deputy game warden of Napa county.

The complaint in the Roach case was based upon an altercation between the deputy and L. V. Cummins, traveling salesman of San Francisco. The incident, which is said to have been accompanied by serious threats from Roach, occurred at a time when traffic officers were investigating automobile headlights. Roach is still on the payroll of the commission after an investigation of the Napa county affair.

A horse belonging to John McGill of El Verano died this week as a result of a sudden illness resembling poisoning. Dr. Nufer was called but could not save the animal, which suffered greatly before its death. McGill purchased the horse and a buggy a short time ago, intending to take some rides since his recovery from a severe illness. He had just three rides when the animal succumbed.

large number already being used to accommodate the increasing number of bathers. Other improvements will be made during the winter months in preparation for big business next season. Many Eastern tourists are expected next year. It is also rumored that a new hotel will be erected near the bath house.

A. Weimer, after a pleasant two weeks' visit with the McCraes, returned to his home in Oakland last Saturday.

Local quail hunters Thursday had a good opening day. Very few pot shots were made, most of the birds being shot on the wing.

The N. W. P. winter schedule which took effect Sunday brings the mail to El Verano at 10:58 a. m., instead of 10:32 a. m., as before.

Miss J. Pensar of San Francisco was a week end visitor at the home of her parents here. Miss Pensar is training to become a nurse at a San Francisco hospital.

The late Franklin D. Wattress, Sonoma Valley rancher, left an estate valued at $1722, consisting of real estate and farm equipment, according to an appraisal filed in the superior court at Santa Rosa last week by Donahd Geary.

William Dowdall of San Francisco was a week end visitor here.

Julius Unger, Alaskan whale catcher and conqueror of all sea fish, has arrived from the frozen North after successful fishing in the icy waters of Alaska. Unger is looking younger than ever and each year's trip brings renewed youth to the veteran seaman. He was a visitor in El Verano Saturday evening and was warmly greeted by his friends in this city. Unger, a seaman for over 50 years, loves Sonoma Valley and when not fishing is enjoying our balmy climate and the hospitality of Sonoma Valley residents.

The river boat Sacramento, one of the largest steamers that ever came up the Petaluma river, arrived at Petaluma last Friday and docked at the Petaluma and Santa Rosa railroad dock. This ship is making the run between Petaluma and San Francisco while the steamer Petaluma is being repaired.

Charles Birdsall, San Francisco pioneer and former power in politics, is spending several days at the French Cottage here.

The new 1926 model Ford car was on exhibition in front of Mullen's store last Friday. Mr. Dobbel, Sonoma agent for E. Coates, was exhibiting the new gas burner, which was admired by El Veranoites. The new car has all the latest equipment and should be a great seller.

The entertainment at O'Rourke's Park, Glen Ellen, last Sunday, given for the benefit of St. Francis church, Sonoma, was a big success. Local parishioners and neighboring city church people were in attendance.

Games, dancing and other events were enjoyed. Perkins orchestra furnished excellent music for dancing. Mass was celebrated on the grounds and the barbecue was enjoyed by all.

Charles Danieli, salesman for the Bowser Company, San Francisco, who has been traveling through Arizona, Utah, and other states attending to business for his company during the past six months, returned to El Verano last Saturday to visit his folks. Mr. Danieli has had a most enjoyable and profitable trip, but is glad to set his feet once more in sunny California.

An extra freight train is now being run out of Santa Rosa daily, transporting grapes enroute East. From 70 to 80 cars are hauled daily. Lloyd Riser, former local boy, is the engineer pulling the train.

Mr. and Mrs. George Stillings have returned home after a visit with Mr. Stillings' brother in Eureka, and a daughter, who also resides in that city. The Stillings made the trip by auto and enjoyed the fine drive along the Redwood Highway.

Grape picking is in full swing in Sonoma Valley, famous for its abundant crops. Many tons of the grapes are being shipped to San Francisco through the Vella agency, at Sonoma, while carload lots are being shipped East via the S. P. and the N. W. P. Grape men say prices are right and that the recent rains did little damage to the crop.

George Cornelius, angler, is landing some nice bass at Wingo. The fish are running good and anglers are enjoying the sport. Many San Francisco fishermen enjoy the week end at Wingo. John Larson, our village hook and line artist, was at Napa Bridge Sunday in quest of bass.

A. Acquistapace is the owner of a new Mason Road King 1 1/2 ton truck which was purchased through the Locarnini agency here. A sport coupe for Joe Callapitre and a new Star delivery truck for the Pioneer French Bakery at Sonoma are also recorded among the sales made by the busy Locarnini agency.

Joe White has left for Palo Alto, where he will make his future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lowell, Jr., accompanied by San Francisco friends, were entertained Sunday at the Norella home here.

Joe Parente and family, Louis Parente and Miss Lillian Parente, all of San Francisco, spent the week end at the Tavern, at Verano.

Miss Johnson, daughter of Ole Johnson, after a visit with Feters Springs relatives, returned to Willets Monday morning.

Plover is recognized as the dean of probation officers of California. Judge Thompson also named Mrs. R. P. Hill as a member of the probation committee.

CALIFORNIA HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS ARE IN DEMAND

There are more high school pupils enrolled in the California high schools than were attending all the high schools in the United States in 1890. More parents are awake to the opportunities the high school gives to their sons and daughters and more boys and girls are anxious to go.

The following doors are closed to the young people who do not graduate from high school: Universities, teachers' colleges, law school, medical college, naval school of aviation, army aviation school, promotion in newspaper office, bank or business. The Bureau of Labor recently sent out a list of 50 different lines for mechanics which are closed to boys not graduating from high school.

The high school pupil learns to think better than the pupils who never go above the elementary grades. Although the high school has never included 10 per cent of the population in its graduates, these furnish 80 per cent of the leadership in American thought.

High school graduates can tackle no end of jobs and learn to do no end of things successfully because they have studied so successfully a variety of subjects that never came their way until they were in high school.

This is why all the professions, all financial and commercial establishments, all literary and journalistic opportunities and all desirable positions in the industries prefer high school graduates.

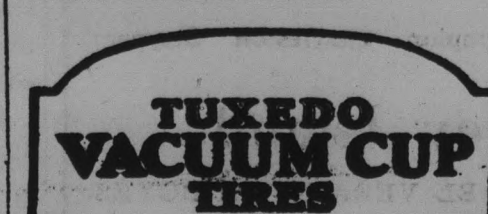

They have the experience and the equipment which makes it easy for them to learn how to do things most efficiently.

There is no place on a ranch for one who cannot use a gas engine, a motor, all parts of machines and instruments, who does not know physics, chemistry, bookkeeping and the keeping of records, of percentages and proportions.

Ranch life is no longer a simple life. There is no longer a place for a "ranch hand." The need is for a "ranch expert." The ranch expert must be a scientist in soils, in fertilizers, in drainage, in sanitation, in care of stock, stock feeding, stock breeding and in many other things.

To be a foreman in any shop, to be a superintendent of any kind anywhere, one really needs to be a graduate of a high school, or, to put it otherwise, if one is a graduate, other things being equal, he is more likely to be promoted.

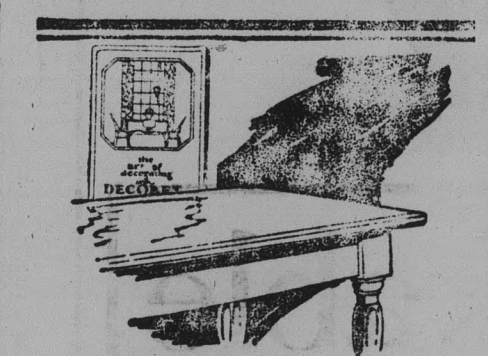

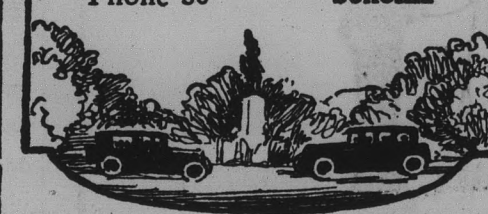

Miss Inez Reed has returned home from a fine vacation spent in Southern California and at Los Angeles.

ST. FRANCIS PICNIC TO BE ANNUAL AFFAIR

So successful and enjoyable was the first picnic and barbecue given at Glen Ellen for the benefit of St. Francis church that it has been decided to make it an annual event.

A large crowd thronged the picturesque grounds of the Mervyn Hotel last Sunday and after open air mass, conducted by Rev. Father Byrne, the parishioners and their friends entered into the social pastimes of the day with much enthusiasm. The barbecue pit was the center of attraction and here delicious frijoles and meat were served under the skilled culinary direction of Frank Tanforan. The meat was donated by Maffei Brothers.

Music donated by the Perkins four piece orchestra enlivened the day and provided fine music for dancing. Ham Chambers kept things humming with his games and contests, and had fine assistance from members of the Y. L. I. and the Amistad Club.

TURKEY THIEF'S DEATH JUSTIFIED

Sheriff James W. Monroe of Yolo county declared no arrests will be made in the fatal shooting of Joe Lawrence, ranch cook, who was slain by George T. Jamison, foreman of the Smith and Redell ranch at Lisbon, when he was caught stealing turkeys.

"It is a clear case of defense of property," the sheriff said. "Jamison gave Lawrence a chance to stop and give himself up, but he kept on running and Jamison fired."

Lawrence died in an automobile enroute to the emergency hospital at Sacramento Sunday night after he had been shot by Jamison when caught in the act of stealing turkeys from one of the sheds.

Several turkeys with their legs tied ready to be taken away were found near an automobile in which Lawrence had driven to the Smith and Redell ranch. The two ranch hands who witnessed the shooting and assisted Jamison in his efforts to get medical aid for his victim corroborated his story of the affair. Lawrence had been employed until recently as cook on the ranch.

Paint in the Spring and be Prepared for the Fall

Paint your house now with a good paint, then it will be in perfect condition next fall. The long summer months will harden the pigment thoroughly to better resist the rigorous blasts of winter.

Monarch Paint
100% Pure

When properly applied to any building at intervals of 5 or 6 years there will be practically no end to the life of that building. Let us help you select your colors.
